SURPRISES AT HAWTHORNE.

Pat Dunne was much in evidence at Hawthorne yesterday, winning with John McGurk and Silurian and getting good prices against both. The former won the feature event of the day, a free handicap purse of $700 for three-year-olds and upward at one and one-eighth miles. He was held at 18 to 5 in the betting and was well backed by the talent. Orontas, at 2 1/2 to 1, was well liked by many, but ran a dull race and has evidently trained off. To a good start Scarlet Lily at once rushed to the front, opening up a gap of five lengths while going down the backstretch, with Favonius second and Jiminez third. Little change occurred in these positions until well into the stretch, where Jiminez fell away beaten and Orontas moved up. Coming down the last eighth Scarlet Lily still had a lead of a length over John McGurk, which had begun to make his run along in here. He got on even terms with her when opposite the paddock gate and beat her handily to the wire by a neck. Orontas finished third five lengths back. In the closing strides John McGurk always held Scarlet Lily safe, Walsh drawing a fine finish purposely. Orontas tired badly under punishment in the last eighth struggle. Jiminez was right there for a mile, but he is nowhere near the good horse he was last year. Favonius showed well for seven furlongs.

Silurian, showing much improvement, took the fifth race, a dash of seven furlongs, in handy fashion at odds of 10 to 1. Joe Frey, closely attended by Constellation and Duellist, showed the way until well into the stretch where he tired fast. Along about the last eighth post Silurian under a vigorous ride by Winkfield moved up fast winning easily by a half length from Rolling Boer, which beat Headwater a half for second place. Rolling Boer came with a great rush at the end after making up much ground in the last quarter. Headwater finished strongly under punishment and displayed gameness. Joe Frey tired fast under punishment in the last eighth and appears to be nowhere near himself.

The day's opener, a dash of five and one-half furlongs for two-year-olds, resulted in a stirring finish between Lady Jocelyn and Airlight, the former winning under a skillful and persevering ride by Winkfield. First Belle Graham and then Adios showed the way, the latter having a lead of two lengths at the last eighth post, but here Lady Jocelyn, under strenuous urging, closed up gradually, winning in a fierce drive by a head from Airlight, which beat Adios a half for second place. Airlight saved ground by going next to the inside when turning for home and finished with great gameness. Adios showed to good advantage, displaying keen speed throughout, but she tired just a trifle in the closing strides. Floearline, fancied much by the talent, ran a somewhat indifferent race. She fell away apparently badly beaten just before entering the final quarter, but rallied in the last furlong and finished rather strongly. Belle Graham showed a flash of early speed and bears watching.

Despite the fact that Lucien Appleby was thought little of by the wisecracks and was as good as 4 to 1 in the betting in the second race, he put up an impressive performance, beating the heavily backed favorite Wainamoinen in handy fashion. Hargis and Wainamoinen ran lapped for the first quarter where the latter fell away beaten and Wainamoinen assumed what appeared to be a winning lead, holding an advantage of three lengths over the field in the final eighth, but here Lucien Appleby moved up with a rush and easily passing her won as his rider pleased, by two lengths. Wainamoinen beat Bragg two lengths for second place. Autumn Leaves showed well for six furlongs. Water Edge was right there for almost seven furlongs and bears watching.

Judicious proved to be best of an unwieldy bunch in the third race, a dash of seven furlongs. Aules, closely pressed by Red Tip, held command for six furlongs, where Judicious, which had always been well up moved up fast and passed into the lead, winning easily by three lengths from Matin Bell, which beat Emathion one for second place. Matin Bell was possibly the best. She was pinched out of position soon after the start and receded to last place while going down the backstretch, but in the final half she began to pick up the field gradually and finished with an impressive burst of speed after making up much ground. Red Tip showed improvement and was a sharp contender for six and a half furlongs. Aules tired fast when the last eighth struggle came up.

The last race of the day was marred by the leaving at the post of Hayward Hunter, well backed by the smart set. He was standing still when the flag went down. The winner turned up in Little Elkin, which ran a remarkably good race. Down the backstretch he was apparently hopelessly beaten off, but moved up fast in the last quarter, winning by two lengths going away from Edith Q., which finished the same distance in front of Ravensbury for second place. Edith Q. showed much improvement, and bears watching from now on in the same kind of a field. Ida V. and Crest showed much speed.

A crowd not nearly so large as that of the first day was present and enjoyed a fair day's sport. The track, although in apparently good condition, is deceptive and is fully three seconds slow, owing to long disuse. It will require two or three days more of good weather to bring it around to its best shape.

NOTES FROM SARATOGA.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 19.—C. H. ("Butch") Thompson died here this morning after a lingering illness of years. He leaves a large estate, the bulk of which was made out of the profits of the famous "White Elephant" poolroom on Broadway, near Thirtieth. It was generally supposed that Inspector Byrnes and Al Smith were associated with him in that enterprise.

H. M. Ziegler's useful colt, Bar Le Duc was claimed out of the first race today by Father "Bill" Daly for $1,550.

In the fifth race H. C. Schulz claimed W. R. Condon and J. L. Holland got Shrine by the same process. Julius Fleischmann gave Irritable away after his breakdown and his new owner, a veterinary surgeon by the name of Johnson, will take him to Canada for breeding purposes.

A. Featherstone backed his colt Arsenal very heavily to win the last race of the day and the winner of the Metropolitan Handicap gave evidence of his early good form, but failed simply because he was not "keyed" up for such a bruising race on a difficult and tiring track.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The yearlings, the property of T. C. McDowell, which are being broken at Ashland, are a fine looking lot, probably the best collectively that Mr. McDowell has ever owned. They are bred as follows:

In addition to the above Mr. McDowell has the following yearlings in training at Sheepshead Bay:

Brown colt, by Sir Dixon—High Degree, by His Highness.

Chestnut colt, by Ornament—Hutoka, by Reform.

Mrs. James B. Ferguson, her son, Garnet Ferguson, and his wife, have left Lexington for California, taking with them the thoroughbred horses which were attached by Phil T. Chinn, son-in-law of Mrs. Ferguson. Among the best of the yearlings are the following:

Black colt, by St. George—Gadabout, by Wanderer; brother to Step Around and Step About.

Chestnut colt, by St. George—Fanfare, by King Ernest; brother to Vohicer.

Chestnut colt, by St. George—Trophy, by Alarm; brother to Lady Wadsworth and half-brother to Wadsworth.

Brown filly, by St. George—Eva Z., by Harry O'Fallon.

Chestnut filly, by Handball—Bessie, by The Ill-Used.

Bay filly, by Rainbow—Report, by Jim Gore or Kosciusko.

A dispatch from Lexington says that S. Phillips, trainer for Fred Cook, has bought of Milton Young, McGrathiana Stud, the brown yearling colt by Pirate of Penzance—Belle Swift, by Enquirer or Iroquois, for $1,750. He also bought for $5,000 of J. V. Shipp, Sunny Slope Stud, the yearling chestnut colt by Knight of Ellerslie—Lady Lou, the yearling bay colt by Florist—Pocahontas, and four other yearling colts and fillies, three of which are by Victory. He also purchased two yearling colts of Lon Jones of Louisville, both by Florist, at a private figure. Phillips was accompanied by Hiram Scoggin, who aided him in selecting the youngsters he bought for Cook, who proposes to have an extensive racing stable out in 1903.

Robert Baker, the steering end of the firm of Baker & Gentry, Lexington, Ky., is determined that there shall be no "pole moving" on his domain. When Baker came into possession of the Kingston Stud, a couple of weeks ago, there were some telephone poles on the place. The telephone company which had its wires strung on the poles sent a gang of workmen out to Kingston last week with instructions to remove the shorn poles. Baker objected to the proceeding, contending that when he purchased the noted breeding establishment he had received a deed to everything on it, even to the hencoops and their contents. The workmen insisted and he had them arrested. They were released on bond and he had them arrested some more—five times more. Baker argues that if the pole holes belong to him he is likewise the owner of everything that is in the holes.

PATROL JUDGES.

At Saratoga five patrol judges have been appointed in addition to the one in service from the outset of the meeting. This is done in a determined effort to have the jockeys under strict surveillance at all points of a race and thereby practically do away with rough and foul riding. Commenting on the matter a letter from Saratoga to Daily America of Monday says:

"The determination of the stewards of the Saratoga meeting to immediately institute a system of race supervision for the suppression of rough riding is generally applauded by turfmen and turf followers here. There has been more polo game work among our jockeys here than there was at any of the earlier meetings. The chances of Acefull and Grantsdale in the United States Hotel Stakes and of Whiskey King in the Delaware Handicap on Saturday were ruined by the crowding and bumping they came in for. Poor little Arthur Redfern was so severely disabled by being carried into the fence on Whiskey King that he could not ride again during the afternoon. Col. James E. Pepper had to scratch his filly, Bounding Beauty, from the maiden race, which came last on the card. Redfern was in such pain he could not ride. Dublin, the horse Lucien Lyne rode in the Delaware, crowded Whiskey King into the fence at the turnout of the backstretch and Redfern's left foot was caught between the Kantaka colt's side and the top rail. Several of his toes were bruised.

"Lyne acknowledged when called before the stewards that Dublin had been responsible for Redfern's misfortune. The Atheling colt, he said, bore in on Whiskey King in spite of his (Lyne's) efforts to keep him straight. He, no doubt, spoke the truth, and the action of the stewards in suspending him for four days was not popular. It was felt that they had picked out one of the cleanest and most inoffensive riders here to make an example of, after overlooking the rough work of a lot of notoriously rough young scapegraces.

"The patrol scheme the Hon. William Collins Whitney suggested last week will probably be put into effect. The other members of the governing board of the Saratoga Association agree with Mr. Whitney that the best way to punish the reckless jockeys is to station watchers at various places along the course and accept their reports without question. Mr. Whitney's system would have been put in operation earlier if men qualified to undertake the onerous job had been available.

"No man is more put out than Mr. Whitney over the recklessness of the jockeys here, and his own prize broncho buster, Master Tommy Burns, will feel the weight of Mr. Whitney's authority unless he mends his ways. If this scheme of a general patrol proves effective at Saratoga, there is little doubt that it will be adopted at the metropolitan tracks. Some of the big stables will lose the services of riders they pay big salaries to, at times when jockeys are most needed, but everything will work out fairly in the end. There will not be so much acrimonious talk after the running of big stakes, and public form will become more reliable. So far as public form goes, rough riders are as dangerous as jockeys who pull horses. A horse may as well be pulled as carried out at a turn or cut off at the start, or jammed against the rail in a drive through the homestretch."

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

J. C. Milam shipped to Kentucky yesterday the two-year-olds Dan McKenna and Jack Brien, to be turned out on one of the stock farms for the season. C. Cella and L. Arado, two of the stockholders in the Fair Grounds and Delmar tracks in St. Louis, were visitors at the track yesterday.

Capt. J. H. Rees, former presiding judge at Hawthorne, Memphis and New Orleans, was a visitor at

The Duke of Westminster was again successful in 1899 with Flying Fox, by Orme—Vampire, by Galopin, and in 1900 King Edward VII. won with Diamond Jubilee, by St. Simon—Perdita II., by Hampton. Of the above named nine have also won the 2,000 Guineas the same year—i. e., West Australian, Lord Lyon, Gladiateur, Ormonde, Diamond Jubilee, Flying Fox, Common, Isinglass and Galtee More.

The new course of the Buffalo Jockey Club at Kenmore is nearing completion and the management has not been sparing in expense. When the plans for the clubhouse were shown it was stated that the estimated cost would be $50,000, and it has been increased, until now it is stated that it will be greater than $80,000 and it will be the finest clubhouse in this country. Washington Park has long laid claim to the finest clubhouse on any track, and there is not the least doubt but that of the Kenmore course will be its equal. It has the benefit of all modern improvements and the style of architecture is much more artistic. Work on the clubhouse and track is being pushed along rapidly and all will be in readiness for the opening of the meeting, August 30.

It is said that the official count developed that upward of 17,000 persons—the biggest crowd of the year—saw the races at Saratoga last Saturday. Twelve thousand was the general estimate. The association is out of debt now. It owed only $25,000, counting all the outstanding bills for improvements at the end of the first week of the meeting. With good weather this week and next the association will make between $80,000 and $100,000 clear, and have a surplus after paying a 5 or 6 per cent. dividend to stockholders with which to make further improvements and to add to the attractiveness of the stake book for next season.

A prominent New York politician is responsible for the statement that the question of racing at Saratoga will be one of the issues before the legislature next winter, and that there is a probability that the great game at the Spa will be killed by that body. It would be a shame to wreck such a plant as that at Saratoga, but it is quite well understood in the east that much of its future depends on the action of the Jockey Club with reference to dates for the new track at Jamaica.

Lady Jocelyn ran slowly, but moved up gradually on the leaders when turning for home and finished resolutely under a powerful ride by Winkfield. Airlight saved ground by going next to the inside rail in the last eighth and finished stoutly. Adios stood a long stretch drive with gameness. Flo-carline fell away apparently badly beaten just before turning for home, but rallied in the last eighth and finished strongly. Belle Graham retired well beaten when a furlong out. She had shown speed up to this point.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. George—Lovee (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 2:45. Off at the first break to a rather poor start. Won easily; second the same. Lucien Appeley ran as if he outclassed his field and, when called on at the head of the stretch, moved up fast and came away without much of an effort. Wainamoninen showed her usual speed and was much the best of the others. Bragg ran consistently, but tired slightly in the last eighth. Autumn Leaves ran well for six furlongs. Hargis showed early speed. Water Edge was right there for six and a half furlongs and bears watching.

Winner—B. f, by Hawkeye—Discreet (trained by E. Corrigan).
Went to post at 3:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Judicious, always well up, came away with ease in the last eighth when called on and won as her rider pleased. Matin Bell was pinched out of position soon after the start and fell away to last place while going down the backstretch, but moved up fast when she got clear sailing and, passing the field rapidly in the last quarter, finished with a great rush. Emathion lost ground when swinging into the stretch, but made it up in the last quarter and was going strongly at the end. Red Tip tired fast in the last sixteenth. Aules showed much speed, but fell away beaten in the last eighth struggle. Lass of Langden ran well for six furlongs.

Went to post at 3:45. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; second easily. John McGurk was easily outrun in the first seven furlongs, but began to move up fast when turning for home and wore down Scarlet Lily in the last sixteenth. The latter showed much speed, but tired palpably when the pinch came. Orontas appeared to have a chance when entering the final quarter, but tired badly in the last sixteenth. Jiminez ran well for a mile. Favonis was thoroughly beaten when turning for home. Strangest can do much better and his race should not be taken seriously.

He began slowly, but moved up fast in the last quarter, and, under a vigorous ride, finished with firmness. Rolling Boer came with a rush at the end after making up much ground in the last quarter. He was beaten off down the backstretch, but moved up rapidly in the last half, and at the end was going away fast. Edith Q. finished strongly and was much the best of the others. Ravensbury tired fast when the pinch came. Crest was well beaten when a furlong out. Banish ran well for a mile.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Kilogram in rare form, drew to the front at the half and, being skillfully nursed, just lasted long enough to win. Bar Le Duc was crowded on the rails early, made up much ground on the far turn and finished gamely, but just failed to get up. Bessie McCarthy, handicapped by the going, failed to stay, but displayed fine speed and is very good and will beat good ones on a fast track. Trump got away badly and is a non-stayer. Loone evidently disliked the mud. Lady Sterling is in bad form. Lone Fisherman quit after going a good half.

Went to post at 2:43. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second easily. Acefull, a phenomenon in mud, forced the pace for the first half and drew away in the stretch as if the others were anchored. Nine Spot closed up with a rush at the end and must be above the average. Olefant ran well in hand for the first half, but failed to stay. Toscan quit after racing a fast half with the winner. Bridesmaid II., away very badly, closed up an immense gap, and, tiring in the last quarter, was eased up. She is a grand looker. Savable, evidently short, was closed up for the first half and retired in the stretch. Subdue showed much speed early and was eased up in the stretch. Mesmer palpably lacked in condition.

Winner—B. h. by Albert—Bonnie Ola (trained by W. C. Rollins).
Went to post at 3:45. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Herbert out-classed the field in the going. He broke slowly and was crossed on the first turn, but with an amazing burst of speed he took the lead in the first quarter, then sukked in the stretch and was sent along sharply to beat Keynote. The latter had trailed and closed a big gap in the last half and loomed up dangerously when a false break of a quarter, and failed to stay after forcing the pace for the first half, but steadily improving. Winner—Ch. f. by Hastings—Glory (trained by E. H. Hanna).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Gloriosa led throughout and gamely stood off W. R. Condon's rush at the end. The latter had been saved to the stretch, where he came fast. Shrine drew clear of the others in the last furlong and was an easy third. Alice Cary and Squanto both made up ground from indifferent starts. Wannakee tired early. Hymettus is a good looker.
Scratched—Reckless, 105; 34240 Dark Planet, 104; 34341 Warte Nicht, 104; (34288) John A. Scott, 101; 343902 Ithan, 99; 34288 Petit Bleu, 97.

Winner—B. g. by Stayesant—Garnet (trained by T. E. Healy).
Went to post at 4:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Carbuncle, particularly favored by the difficult track, under a powerful ride ran a good race and outstayed Huntressa. The latter ran a remarkably game race after ill judged and excessive early use. Arsenal trailed the leaders under a pull for six furlongs, but failed to stay at the end and was evidently short, but is in good form again. Zoroaster was crowded on the backstretch and fell out of contention, but could hardly have made good without the interference. Himself forced the pace for six furlongs and then quit.

Scratched—(26024) Lady Schorr, 120; (34289) Roxane, 115; 34239 Hyphen, 112; 33229 La Goleta, 112; (34188) Colonel Bill, 107; (34338) Cunard, 106.

Went to post at 2:56. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jake Weber was best, went to the front when called on and won as his rider pleased. Emma C. L. ran a good race, wore down Iola in the stretch and was going away from her at the finish. Iola showed speed, but tired in the run home. Himtine is seemingly of no account at present. Winner—Br. f. by Pirate of Penzance—Ella F. (trained by R. B. Hayes).
Went to post at 3:33. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. John J. Regan came with a rush in the last quarter, wore down his field and won going away. He bore in on Immortelle in the last fifty yards, pinning her against the rail and was disqualified and the race given to Immortelle. Dumont was outrun in the first part of the race, but finished very strongly and caught Onyx II. and Mrs. Frank Foster tiring. Mrs. Frank Foster showed the most early speed but tired as if short. Mexicana showed but little speed. Lorne quit badly.
Scratched—34349 Woolsack, 94.
